MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Request for Nominations for "Competing in a New Business Environment: A Program for Defense Acquisition Executives"

I am pleased to announce that the next offering of "Competing in a New Business Environment: A Program for Defense Executives" is scheduled for August 19 - 31, 2001. The course is intended for contracting professionals who have at least a baccalaureate degree and attained Level III certification. Nominees must be at least GS-13/Major serving in contracting positions such as Principal Assistant Responsible for Contracting (PARC), Director of Contracting (DOC), senior staff personnel responsible for providing business advice, and Senior Contracting Officers responsible for major contracting actions.

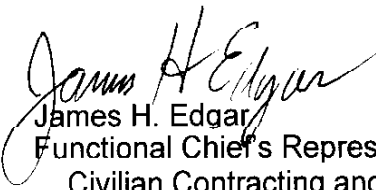

The course will be offered at the Darden Graduate School of Business Administration, University of Virginia, 100 Darden Boulevard, P.O. Box 6550, Charlottesville, Virginia 22906-6550. The Army Civilian Training, Education, and Development System (ACTEDS) will fund all per diem (one and a half days), travel, tuition, room and meals (with limited exceptions). Rental cars will not be paid for using ACTEDS funding. Organizations will fund the travel and per diem of military members.

Request you provide a prioritized listing of nominees to include their full name, mailing address, business phone and e-mail address. Nominees should complete application DD Form 1556 (do not include funding information) and the attached resource memorandum (civilians only). Civilians should also submit their Acquisition Civilian Record Brief. Applications should be sent by May 31, 2001 to:
